

SOCIETY

Although the first week in Lent had a depressing effect upon social doings, there was enough going on to keep society from getting into the doldrums. Even though it is Lent, there are some social functions which are necessary as duty affairs.

One of the jolliest card parties of the season was that given by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Atwater in honor of their thirtieth wedding anniversary on St. Patrick's Day in the evening at their home on Pensacola street. Progressive pedro was the order for the earlier part of the evening, the first prizes being taken by Mrs. H. E. Cooper and Captain Otis and the consolations by Mrs. S. B. Rose and C. J. Hutchins. Following cards, dainty refreshments were served. The entire color scheme was green, the score cards being in form of a Shamrock and the prizes being malleable tied with green ribbons for the first prizes, while considerable laughter was occasioned when Mrs. Rose received an immense head of cabbage tied with a green ribbon and from a neat box with a Wichman label Mr. Hutchins extracted a package of green seal tobacco. The evening closed by all singing "Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot," and "Aloha Oe," the company breaking up with regret only in time to catch the last cars. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Oat, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. L. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Benner, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar White, Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hutchins, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Auerbach, Mr. and Mrs. Stackable, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Atherton, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McCandless, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Capt. and Mrs. Otis, Mr. Frank Barstow, Misses Phillips, Miss Chaffee, Miss Benner.

Mrs. Alice Harrison of Stella room gave a handsome dinner of six covers Thursday for Mrs. Fred Smith of Honolulu, formerly a resident of Stella.

Bridge whist is slowly dying out in popularity and by the end of the Lenten season pedro will undoubtedly have full swing again. However, there are devotees of bridge who will stick to their favorite game despite the decrees of fashion.

The Haleiwa Hotel celebrated St. Patrick's Day yesterday, and last evening a dance was given at the hostelry which was a rousing success. About seventy-five people from town and the plantations were present. Indications are that a large crowd will go to Haleiwa this morning to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Woolworth and Misses Woolworth and Miss Walton, wealthy tourists from Sandusky, Ohio, are spending a few weeks at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The young ladies are a great addition to Honolulu society, and have won many friends by their charming and gracious manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moss, Miss Moss and Miss Knap, prominent society people from Black Hall, Conn., will spend several months at the Hawaiian Hotel. They have been out on a number of expeditions that the hotel is constantly planning for its guests, and express themselves as more than charmed with Honolulu and its environments.

Mrs. Sachs gave a charming luncheon yesterday at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, covers being laid for seven. The table was a solid mass of violets, the effect being most attractive. Those who sat down were: Mrs. M. Phillips, Mrs. Solinsky, Mrs. C. Brown, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Grinbaum, Mrs. Derby.

The Royal Hawaiian Hotel is offering a decided innovation in the way of hotel entertaining on Friday evening, March 24th, in the shape of a luau, or native feast, during which the Kawaihau Glee Club will play and sing. Succeding this, four of the best native dancing girls will give the graceful Kamehameha IV dance, which is one of the prettiest of the Hawaiian dances. The evening will wind up with a general dance on the broad lanais of the hotel.

A very jolly party of twenty-five from the Hawaiian Hotel went out on a moonlight launching trip Friday evening with the Kawaihau Glee Club and serenaded H. B. M. S. Bonaventure lying in the stream. In return one of the jacksies, who had a fine tenor voice, sang a number of solos, the crew of the warship joining in the chorus. A landing was made late at the Healan Boat Club house, where dancing was indulged in until nearly midnight. Among those who went were: Mr. and Miss M. O'Meara, Mrs. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Arkins, Mrs. Holzheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic J. Church, Miss Moss, Miss Knap, Miss Woolworth, Miss Walton, Miss Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. Nifong, Dr. and Mrs. Long, Miss Long, Judge Kingsbury, Mrs. Moore, and Messrs. SOLOMON'S QUINTETTE

Will Entertain Public at The Hawaiian Hotel.

Solomon's old original Quintette club has branched out and under the able management of Sam Naimoa has materially added to both its numbers and personnel. Hereafter this musical organization will be known as the Kawaihau Glee Club. In order to show their appreciation of the patronage extended to them by the Honolulu public, they purpose giving free quarterly dances, the first of which will be at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Friday, March 24. A luau and native dance will precede the general dance and all those who wish to attend will kindly leave word at the Hotel office and thus insure proper seating and service. This luau and dance will be public only as far as tourists and friends of the Royal Hawaiian are concerned.

SWELL IRON BEDS

The steamer Hawaiian brought us a big shipment of beds—all the way from the manufacturers in Chicago. Some are all brass, and some colored with heavy brass trimmings. These are high class beds, similar to the iron beds seen in the swell suites of the hotels. They are much superior to the iron beds usually sold here.

We have fine beds in the Vernis Martin finish. Cribs, with high sides, and all brass.

DINING ROOM RUGS.

By the Alameda we received a large shipment of grass rugs. They are of all sizes, all colors, and of many figured designs. We got them in such quantity and at a price that will permit them to be sold low. They are just the thing for the dining room or den, are artistic, and, although cheap as regards price, are not cheap in appearance.

WIRE MATTRESSES.

This climate rusts some kinds of wire mattresses. Then the rusty wires spoil the ticking of your nice mattresses. New wire springs are inexpensive and save you lots of trouble. We sell a number of different makes and as we put them together in our own workshops we can guarantee that they will not warp or break up easily.

LANAI FURNITURE.

Warm weather is approaching. Are your lanai rockers weather-worn and useless. We have a nice line of these.
